

Interagency Defensible Space Inspection Program

2023 season highlights from the interagency Defensible Space Inspection Program of Marin County Fire Department, Ross Valley Fire Department, Kentfield Fire Protection District, Central Marin Fire Department, and Southern Marin Fire Protection District.

- 20,658 inspections across 5 Fire Department jurisdictions
- Follow up inspections in each zone
- 24 Seasonal Defensible Space Inspectors
- Most common issues:
 - Vegetation in zone zero
 - Leaf litter in gutters and on roof
 - Trees overhanging structure, trees needing limbing
 - Uncut annual grasses and weeds

Interested in becoming a Seasonal Defensible Space inspector in 2024?

You can help Marin County Fire Agencies make homes and communities safer from wildfire while building valuable skills and performing a wide variety of fire prevention duties.

Scan to sign up for updates on recruitments or use this link to sign up.

SIGN UP

